Workshop

Scenarios for the Russian Federation

The Scenarios for the Russian Federation build on the insights from a series of conversations with experts and practitioners facilitated by the World Economic Forum over the course of 2012. Participants will explore and deepen various scenarios for the future of Russia's economy, and reflect on a forward-looking policy agenda. The outcome of this highly interactive session will be a key contribution to the development of the final Scenarios report that will be presented at the World Economic Forum Annual Meeting in Davos-Klosters in January 2013.

Simultaneous interpretation in English and Russian will be provided for the reporting segment of the session

This session is off the record

Dinner

Russia in the Global Context

Global CEOs, thought leaders and members of the Russian government will discuss how to advance the priorities recommended by the members of the Global Agenda Councils and the Scenarios for the Russian Federation network.

The following dimensions will be addressed:

- Russia's leadership in the global context
- Rethinking growth models
- Fostering human capital
- Ensuring financial market development

Simultaneous interpretation in English and Russian will be provided for the update segment of the session
